

Arkansas Dressage Society presents...

Lauren Sprieser Clinic

December 4-5, 2021

Arkansas Dressage Society is excited to welcome
LAUREN SPRIESER!

Lauren is a USDF Gold, Silver and Bronze Medalist, and a High Performance Grand Prix rider and trainer. A veteran of the High Performance Youth Programs, she has consistently produced horses from green to FEI, including five to Grand Prix. Her students compete with success from the grassroots to the international levels in several disciplines, on a wide range of horse types. Her students have contested in the USDF National Championships, the NAYC and the Kentucky 5*. Lauren is a high-energy and experienced teacher whose wit and charm have graced The Chronicle of the Horse, Dressage Today, Practical Horseman and Horse Illustrated. She is currently developing a pipeline of her own horses. Lauren has trained with top Olympic level coaches including Monica Theodorescu, Lendon Gray and Allison Brock, and trains horses and riders from her home base in Virginia and her winter location in Wellington, Florida.

Lessons: There are ten 45-minute private lesson spots available each day as well as space for auditors. Riders of all levels and disciplines are welcome to join us for a weekend of fun and education. ADS members will be given precedence for available spots.

Riders: Registration Form is available at www.arkansasdressage.org.

- ◆ Fee is $150.00 per lesson
- ◆ Auditors are welcome
- ◆ Entry deadline is November 1, 2021.
- ◆ Stalls are available upon request for an additional fee

Location: Valley View Farm 85 Vilanco Lane Vilonia, AR

FMI: www.arkansasdressage.org