

Arkansas Dressage Society presents...

Mary Mahler Clinic

January 22-23, 2022

Arkansas Dressage Society is excited to welcome
MARY MAHLER

Mary Mahler has been teaching riders and training horses for over 30 years. She is a USDF Certified T-4 Trainer as well as an "L" Graduate with distinction, and is currently working toward her "R" judges card. She is also a USEF "R" Western Dressage judge. Mary teaches with an emphasis on correct rider mechanic in terms of both position as well as application and integration of the aids. She has trained numerous horses of varied breeds and types to the FEI levels and has earned all scores for her USDF medals through Intermediare on horses she has personally started and trained. Her passion is working with riders to increase their effectiveness in the saddle and their understanding of classically correct training principles.

Lessons: There are five 45-minute private lesson spots available as well as space for auditors. Riders of all levels and disciplines are welcome to join us. This clinic is for ADS members. Valley View Farm is a co-sponsor of this clinic with their part being private and full. There will be half day of lessons at each location so riders can sign up for 2 rides.
